Connie: My brother and I go to school at 8 o'clock. We pass the post office and the bank, and then Lance goes his own way with his friends. I pass the hospital, clothes shop, the hotel and the park, and the school is right there.

Lance: My sister and I go to school at 8 o'clock. We pass the post office and the bank, and at the bank I meet my best friends, Bob and Hans. Who wants to go to school with girls, anyway? So we pass the cinema to see what's on. Then we pass the music shop to see what's new. Then we stop at the zoo to see if the lions are still there. Then we go to the baker's to buy hot buns. Yummy. We can't go to the school with an empty stomach. Then we go through the park. We feed the birds and then we really must go to school. Connie is already there and the teacher is always mad at me. I don't understand why.
